MEMORANDUM OF COLLABORATION

Introduction

This Memorandum of Collaboration (MoC) constitutes an agreement between Korambayil Ahamed Haji Memorial Unity Women's College (KAHM), Manjeri, Malappuram Dt., Kerala, India, and Alef Complementary Educational Services Ltd. (ACES), Hong Kong, to express both parties' willingness to conduct Faculty Development Programme on 21st CENTURY TEACHING SKILLS.

Brief Introduction of the Parties

ACES is a social enterprise registered in Hong Kong. It is an education service provider that focuses on teaching academic or study skills, designing curriculum and creative writing to university aspirants and teachers onsite and online. In India, it is currently engaged in teaching creative writing and academic skills in various schools and colleges in the southern province of Tamil Nadu.

KAHM is the first multi-faculty, first grade aided women's college in Malappuram District and it is affiliated to University of Calicut. It aims to provide good quality educational services to students from the surrounding semi-urban and rural areas who often come with ineffective learning habits to perform their best in a formal study environment.

Background

KAHM Unity Women's College representative Mrs. N.V. Fatimathu Zuhara, Assistant Professor, Department of Home Science, KAHM Unity Women's College, Manjeri, Kerala, expressed willingness to use 21st Century Teaching Skills program of ACES for KAHM. This MoC is prepared to incorporate her request.

Parties' Objective

This is an online real time training project to empower teachers in teaching study / academic skills so that they can empower their students in becoming independent learners and strategic planners.

Introduction to the background information, higher order thinking skills, metacognitive skills, critical thinking and reading skills, creativity promoting techniques, etc., which teachers can incorporate into learning tasks without compromising the requirements of the curriculum.
