

ANNUAL REPORT 2020-21
PG. DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
KAHM Unity Women's College, Manjeri.

1. Book Buddy- An event in connection with reading day to promote reading among faculty and students- 22 July 2020

As part of the State Reading Week Celebrations, the Department of English, KAHM Unity Women's College conducted a book review event, titled Book Buddy on July 22, 2020. The faculty members of various teaching departments of KAHM Unity Women's College, the Non-Teaching Staff members and students from the English and other departments participated and presented the reviews of book they have read. One pre requisite of the books to be reviewed is that it should be a recent publication published on or after 2018. The event was really an informative one when the books of various genres like fiction, poetry, drama, biography, other nonfiction categories like courtesy books and books about predictions of how our future life will be were reviewed. Apart from books in printed form, audio books, books in PDF format etc. were reviewed by teachers giving the students an idea about what books would be like in a paperless society. Mrs. Awasthi MP, the teacher-in-charge of the English Association delivered, the welcome note. Dr. Rajani R., the event co Ordinator introduced the books and the speakers. Miss Khadeeja Dilna, the English Association Secretary proposed the vote of thanks.

2—9. English Association - Activities 2020-21: (Inauguration 14 Jan 2021)

English Association at KAHM Unity Women's College, Manjeri is a creative endeavour of the enthusiastic student community of English Department. The major focus of the platform is to function as a catalyst to shape the talents of the students towards perfection. Ms. Khadeeja Nidha of Third Semester BA English and Ms. Aswathi M.P., the faculty member of the department, are the coordinators of the year 2020-21. The Pandemic scenario troubled the Association activities initially as the team has to envisage new patterns and medium which fulfill the requirements of the programme in the changed context. Selecting Google Meet as the platform for the exchanges, forming a what's app group of all the class leaders and teachers for this specific purpose and fixing it as a fortnightly event on alternate Wednesdays at 12.30 pm, the crisis was resolved. Starting with third semester BA English batch each class performed various programmes such as Book reviews, talks of contemporary relevance such as "Either side of Online Classes", "New Education Policy", "Discrimination". "Gadgets and Depression" etc., film reviews, and literary quizzes. Dr. Arya Gopi, the award-winning poet was invited for the formal inauguration of online Associations on 14 January 2021.

Ms. M.K.Vineetha, the faculty member of the department delivered a session on 07 October 2020 which the students felt as really beneficial to them. The most significant initiative of the Association is the programme organized on 31 March 2021 to honour the Alumni members who qualified NET/SET/Ph.D. Ms. Ashika, Ms. Nasila Jasmin, Ms. Abida Abdullah, Ms. Nilofer and Ms. Shabna K.P. received mementoes from Dr. M.Nasar, Pro-vice chancellor of Calicut University. Along with that the Association honoured Dr. Shahina Mol A.K. who is both a teaching faculty and Alumni and Dr. Krishna Sunder, a faculty member of the department for being awarded Ph.D. in the academic year. The programme motivated the student community of the department to aim high and achieve their goals. The student involvement in the programme enabled them to develop leadership skills along with showcasing their talents in the show.

12 . Three-day International webinar on

“Perspective Matters: Unlearning Unicentrism in collaboration with KSHEC (14, 15, 16 Sep 2020)

The three-day international webinar on Perspective Matters: Unlearning Unicentrism organized by the Department of English, KAHM Unity Women’s College, Manjeri was inaugurated by Sayyid Munavvar Ali Shihab Thangal. Dr. Sabrina Lei, Italian author and director of Tawasul Centre for publishing, Research and Dialogue at Rome delivered the inaugural keynote on “Cultural Criticism, Social Structure and Identity.” Her lecture focused on the construction of power, cultural assimilation and the methods of resistance offered to the new social order imposed upon the Malayali community by the Colonial masters with reference to the first Malayalam novel Indulekha. The inaugural session was presided over by the Principal of the College, Dr. C. Saidalavi. Manager of the College Management Committee Er. O. Abdul Ali, Head of the Department Dr. Shahinamol A. K, Coordinator of the webinar Ms. Krishna Sunder, and the IQAC coordinator Dr. Annie Ninan spoke during the session.

Dr. Ravi A. Palat, Sociologist and Professor at Binghamton University, keynote speaker for the second session mentioned that Universities which are the centers of knowledge production has a big role in building and sustaining the cultural capital. Analyzing the history of university education across the world, he pointed out that modern Universities though promote multiculturalism are inclined to monetary benefits, which can be hazardous. He also pointed out that multidisciplinary of modern education system proposed by NEP is blind to the marginal sectors like Dalit studies, Women Studies etc.

Dr Abdel Latif, writer and executive board member, Maqasid Institute of philosophy of law, Italy the keynote speaker for the first session of the second day spoke on identity politics, power politics, media politics and the role of public intellectuals in demystifying power by challenging xenophobia, radical nationalism and radical racism.

Ms. Ann Susan Aleyas, the plenary speaker from St Stephen’s College, Delhi focusing her lecture on twentieth century women’s writing in English commented that the essence of women’s writing in India is its polyphony . She added that women’s writing is caught in the politics of translation, and emphasized the need for looking at translation not only as a social, cultural, creative activity, but also as an ethical project.

Twelve papers were presented by students, research scholars, and teachers in the third day, 16 September in two sessions chaired by Dr. Betsy Paul C., Head and Research supervisor of the PG Department of English at St Aloysius College. Around 250 delegates from Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Telangana, Maharashtra, Chandigarh, Karnataka, Odisha, Delhi, Punjab, West Bengal and Dubai participated and presented papers in the various sessions of the webinar. The webinar was coordinated by Ms. Krishna Sunder and Ms. Poornima R, Assistant professors of the department.
