A PROGRAMME OUTCOME (PO)

At the end of post graduate program at Department of Computer Science, University of calicut, a student would have:

PO1: Attained profound expertise in computing science discipline.

PO2: Acquired ability to function in multidisciplinary domains.

PO3: Equipped with comprehensive knowledge and understanding of advanced theoretical fundamentals in computer science as well as contemporary key research issues in specialized areas.

PO4: Attained ability to exercise research intelligence and innovations.

PO5: Proficiency in ethical principles and committed to professional ethics.

PO6: Incorporated self-directed and life-long learning.

PO7: Obtained ability to maneuver in diverse contexts with global perspective.