The Shihab Thangal Library and Information Centre provides a wide range of electronic resources to support the academic needs of its users. Key resources include N-LIST and DELNET, which together grant access to a vast array of e-journals and e-books across multiple disciplines, enhancing research and learning opportunities. N-LIST offers a comprehensive selection of e-journals, e-books, and full-text articles. In addition to its rich collection of e-journals and e-books, DELNET provides access to various databases, online course portals, audiobooks, and e-newspapers. Through these platforms, the library ensures that users have immediate access to the latest research and literature in digital format.

Moreover, the library promotes Open Access Resources, allowing users to access valuable scholarly materials at no cost. The National Digital Library of India (NDLI) serves as a national repository, offering a wealth of educational content, while Shodhganga provides access to theses and dissertations from Indian universities, further enriching the academic landscape.

With these electronic resources, the library supports the empowerment of students, researchers, and faculty, fostering a vibrant environment for academic inquiry and exploration.
