Tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The topics are delivered minimising lecture mode, choosing activities that engage students in the usage of the medium. The choice of resources is left to the RP, however interactive materials are highly recommended. Devise real life situations wherever possible which enhances language production and the meaning making process. 			The dates are tentative and is subject to change. RPs may swap slots and must ensure that every section is complete with no carry over to the next day other
