Scholarship Policy

Scholarship Cell

The Scholarship Cell at KAHM Unity Women's College has been established to channelize maximum scholarships to the students of the college. It aims to extend a helping hand to the student community of the college by which they will get to know various agencies that provides various scholarships and free ships. The scholarship cell has an Institutional Nodal Officer from the teaching staff and an office staff from the NTS to assist and support the students for applying various scholarships from Government and Non-Governmental agencies, and the Nodal Officer and the office staff together discharge the verification and approval of the scholarships following all the due procedures. Another office staff of the college is in charge of the e-grants who meticulously work to bring in maximum number of e- grants from the Govt. to the deserving students.

The scholarship cell of the college organizes Orientation sessions to the first-year students as a part of the Bridge Course of the freshers and a separate Orientation programme for the seniors to ease the renewal process of various scholarships. The cell regularly updates all the notifications via Scholarship WhatsApp groups and the students queries on scholarships in the groups are also answered by the scholarship cell.
